3. SOURCE OF THE PERSONAL DATA

The Controller obtains your personal data directly from you as a data subject, in case you provide the Controller with your personal data (for example when you enter into a contract with the Controller or when you grant a consent to the Controller regarding your photos). In some cases, especially if a service is ordered from the Controller by a business company or other entity of which you are a representative of or a contact person, the source of your personal data is this entity.

If you do not provide the Controller with your personal data in some cases, the Controller would not be able to deliver the goods, enter into a contract with you and fulfil its other legal and contractual obligations.

4. TO WHOM THE CONTROLLER PROVIDES YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Your personal data may be in some cases provided to public authorities, which are entitled to process your personal data, e.g. to courts, law enforcement authorities or other inspection authorities.

Your personal data may also be provided to other companies (entities) in the Nordzucker Group, to the extent necessary for internal administrative purposes. This transfer is carried out on the basis of the legitimate interest of the Controller. When providing specific administrative services related to the provision of internal management systems and information recording systems in the field of IT security and support by the parent company Nordzucker AG (Germany), the parent company acts as a data processor and the transfer of your personal data is carried out on the basis of a concluded contract on the processing of personal data.

Other recipients of your personal data include, in some cases, law firms, executors, notaries, insurance companies or banks, which act as independent controllers.

5. TRANSFER TO THIRD COUNTRIES AND INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATIONS AND PROFILING

When processing your personal data, it is not transferred to third countries or international organizations.

6. HOW LONG DOES THE CONTROLLER STORE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

The Controller always stores personal data in accordance with the principle of minimization. This means that it processes personal data only during the period during which it is necessary to keep the personal data. After this period, the Controller will delete the personal data, unless otherwise provided by law. The specific retention periods are set by the Controller in its registration plan in accordance with the relevant legal regulations, as mentioned above, in the table of purposes.

The Controller will also provide you with more detailed information on the retention period of your personal data if you so request.

7. DOES THE CONTROLLER USE PROFILING AND AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING?

The Controller does not use profiling when processing your personal data and does not process personal data in any form of automated individual decision-making, in which your personal aspects would be evaluated.

8. WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING?

As the data subject, your rights regarding the processing of your personal data are as follows:

Your rights
Right of access - You have the right to obtain a copy of the personal data which we hold about you, as well as the information on how we use your personal data. In most cases, your personal data will be provided to you by electronic means of communication, unless otherwise requested by you. RIGHT TO OBJECT You have the right to object to processing of your personal data, for example if we process your personal data based on the legitimate interest or to processing in which profiling occurs. If you object to such personal data processing, we will not further process your personal data unless we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for such processing.
RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT If we process your personal data on the basis of your consent, you have the right to withdraw such consent for further processing of your personal data. You may withdraw your consent at any time in writing, by e-mail or orally (in person).

You may exercise your rights specified in the table above at the contact addresses of the Controller listed at the beginning of this document. The Controller will provide you with the answer to the exercise of your rights free of charge.

In the event of a repeated, unreasonable or inappropriate request for the exercise of your rights, the Controller is entitled to charge a reasonable fee for the provision of information. The Controller will provide you with an answer within 1 month from the day when you exercised your rights. In certain cases, the Controller is entitled to extend this period, in the case of a high number and complexity of applications of the data subjects, maximally by 2 months. The Controller will always inform you about the extension of the deadline in advance.

9. VALIDITY

An updated version of this Privacy policy is valid and effective as of 31 March 2021. As it is possible that an update of the information on personal data processing contained in this Privacy policy may be necessary in the future, the Controller is entitled to update this Privacy policy at any time. In such case, the Controller will inform you about it in an adequate manner in advance.
